

The MYAA guideline for lightning delays calls for immediate stoppage of play when lightning is seen or thunder is heard. Play cannot resume until 20 minutes have passed. Every subsequent thunder or lightning after the first sighting resets the 20-minute clock. All student athletes will be directed to the nearest shelter under close supervision by coaches or MYAA leadership.